Mr. Tom E. Collier,
1211 N. 38th St.,
Oklahoma City, Okla.

Dear Mr. Collier:

A short time ago I was in your City on a hurried business trip and happened to notice your address in the telephone directory. I am connecting up the Collier family all over the United States, trying to ascertain if they are descendants of John Collier who was a merchant in London, England, along about 1650, and whose grandson, Isaac Collier, came to America in 1737. John Collier, the merchant of London, England, was a son of Robert Collier of Kent County, England, who married Isabella Doddington, and whose will was probated in 1551.

I am a descendant of Vines Collier, who came to Gerogia in 1780, settling in Oglethorpe County; and this Vines was a grandson of the first Isaac that came from England to Virginia.

There has always been a Robert; a William; an Isaac; a Benj.; and a John in almost every Collier family wherever I investigate.

I am getting up this data with the view of securing a complete genealogy for the last 500 years. My present record reaches back to Robert Collier of Stone, England, who died in 1505. He had a son named Thurston, one named James, and one named Robert, who was the father of John the London merchant.

I herewith enclose a questionnaire blank of the Collier family, which I would appreciate you filling in, going back as far as you can remember, even if you do think you are not connected with this Isaac Collier.

If you ever come to this section of Georgia, or Atlanta, would be glad to see you or have you visit me.

With very kind regards, I beg to remain

Yours most respectfully,
